Deposit policy

Your deposit of [amount] holds your appointment and pays for the time spent on your design. It is applied to your final price on the day of your appointment.

To move your appointment, tell us at least [48] hours ahead. Your deposit moves with you to the new date. You can move your date [one time]; after that, booking again needs a new deposit.

If you miss your appointment, or change it with less notice than above, the deposit is kept by the studio and a new deposit is needed to book again.

If the studio has to move your appointment, your deposit moves to a date that works for you.
